Shipyard Arrangements.

The Common Council held a regular meeting last evening, President Colvin in the chair. The following members were present: Clerk, Bailey, Burdy, Wallbaum, Young, Mahoney, Bonfield, Kreigh, Wilson, Walsh, Wallace, McCarthy, Hoffman, Cullerton, Ryan, Gage, Stout, Scanlan, Bonner, Tuite, Dempsey, Cleary, McGrath, Kehoe, and Tuttle.

IMPORTANT TO GAS.

An ordinance was introduced by Ald. Bailey that hereafter meters be kept already purchased, and not sold.

Ald. Mahoney moved to waive the regulations.

Ald. Woodman moved to refund the witnesses to the City Hall.

Ald. Bailey moved as a substitute, that "no person, company, or corporation, shall, by advance of charges or otherwise, directly or indirectly, evade the provisions of an ordinance passed [illegible]."

Ald. Mahoney moved that the whole subject be laid on the table, but lost. It was referred to the Committee on Gas, by Ald. Bailey's consent.

The Council then adjourned to 10 o'clock TUESDAY to report on ordinances.

SHADE AVENUE AT CHICAGO.

An invitation to visit the grounds of the Northern Shade Avenue Association was received.

Ald. Bailey moved that the invitation be accepted.

Ald. Mahoney moved to amend by adding "and that the Board of Public Works be requested to report on the practicability of opening the avenue."

The amendment was carried, 20 to 12.

SHADE AVENUE AT CHICAGO.

An invitation to visit the grounds of the Northern Shade Avenue Association was received.

The report of the Committee on Finance on the petition of Mrs. Mary Ann Quinn, widow of Michael Quinn, who was killed by falling into a sewer, recommending that she be allowed $1,000 in full of all claims against the City, was adopted.
